

Student Terms and Conditions

University for the Creative Arts / London College of Contemporary Arts

Terms and conditions: Subcontracted Courses

1. Introduction

- 1.1 You have received an offer from LCCA (as defined below), setting out the details and conditions for admission to one of our courses.
- 1.2 The purpose of this document is to set out the terms and conditions of the legal contract that will be formed between you and Us (as defined below), if you accept the offer that has been made to you (the "Contract").
- 1.3 You should read this document carefully and familiarise yourself fully with its contents and the regulations, policies and procedures it refers to, before accepting your offer. Your attention is in particular drawn to Our right to make changes to the contract set out in section 8, the limitation of liability as set out in section 12 and Our right to end the contract set out in section 16 below.
- 1.4 Your Course (as defined below) will be a UCA course and UCA is the awarding body for your degree. However, your Course will primarily be delivered by LCCA. Subject to this Contract, you will be registered with UCA and LCCA and (for administrative purposes) enrolled simultaneously on the student management systems of both UCA and LCCA. Our Contract formed under these terms and conditions will be between you, UCA and LCCA. UCA and LCCA have different roles and responsibilities towards you under this Contract, as described in Appendix B.
- 1.5 The definitions set out below are used in these terms and conditions:

"Course" means the course described in the Offer Pack.

"LCCA" means London College of Contemporary Arts Ltd company number 07889724 whose registered office is at 30 Holborn, Buchanan House, London, England, EC1N 2HS.

"Offer Pack" means the offer pack provided to you if your application is successful, containing an offer of admission to your selected Course, the additional terms and any conditions that attach to such offer including the acceptance of offer form and conditions of acceptance, and a copy of these terms and conditions.

"Student Representative" means a student who is a nominated course representative and/or elected officers of the Students' Union.

“UCA” or “the University” means University for the Creative Arts.

“Us” or “We” or “Our” means UCA and LCCA together.

2. Our duties

- 2.1 The University and LCCA (to the extent applicable as described in your Offer Pack and this Contract and in line with the specific obligations that each of the University and LCCA will be responsible for) will enrol and register you and deliver the course of study set out in your Offer Pack. The Course will be delivered with reasonable skill and care.
- 2.2 UCA will be responsible for monitoring your academic progress and, if you successfully complete your Course and keep to the terms and conditions set out in this document and any stated in your Offer Pack, UCA will grant your award in line with UCA’s regulations, policies and procedures, which will govern your Course. These are listed in Appendix A at the end of this document.
- 2.3 To aid your understanding of UCA and LCCA’s roles in relation to Our duties under Our Contract, We have set out Our respective roles and responsibilities at Appendix B to these terms and conditions. If you have any queries about the roles and responsibilities listed, you should first contact the institution that is responsible for the relevant service or action. However, if you are not able to do so, you can contact either UCA or LCCA using the contact details set out in 19.1 below.

3. Your responsibilities

- 3.1 As a condition of accepting a place on the Course, you agree to familiarise yourself fully with, and to comply at all relevant times with, these terms and conditions, any terms and conditions stated in your Offer Pack and with UCA’s regulations (as listed in Appendix A).
- 3.2 We have the right to make reasonable amendments to the regulations from time to time in accordance with section 8.

4. Entry requirements

- 4.1 Entry requirements are confirmed by the UCA Academic Board and, if relevant to you, will be clearly set out in your Offer Pack.
- 4.2 LCCA Admissions Department will process your application, confirm whether you can receive an offer and provide you with information, advice and guidance about your Course. LCCA will decide whether to offer you a place on a Course, but LCCA will follow UCA’s admission policy (see Appendix A) when doing so. All communications about your application will be with the LCCA Admissions Department; the UCA Admissions Department will not be able to provide updates on your application.

5. Your Contract with Us

Deferring entry

- 5.1 If you do not want to start your Course in the academic year specified in your Offer Pack, you can ask to defer (delay) entry to the following academic year by emailing LCCA admissions team at admissions@lcca.org.uk as soon as possible after receiving your offer (in line with UCA’s admissions policy). The maximum period you can defer enrolment for is one academic year.

- 5.2 We may refuse deferrals in certain circumstances (please see UCA's admission's policy at Appendix A for further details), including if We do not plan to deliver the Course during the following academic year.
- 5.3 The joint decision of the LCCA and UCA Admissions teams will be final and We will not consider appeals.
- 5.4 If you defer your entry to the following year, you accept that We may need to make changes to your Course, in line with section 8 of these terms and conditions, or changes to your fees in accordance with section 7.4 of these terms and conditions, before you enrol on your deferred course. If this is the case, We will tell you about any changes as soon as reasonably possible. If, as a result of these changes, you would like to end your Contract with Us, you can do this in line with section 16 of these terms and conditions.

When your Contract with Us becomes binding

- 5.5 Whichever type of course your offer relates to, your Contract with Us becomes binding when you accept your offer as detailed in the Offer Pack. You can accept your offer by following the instructions set out in your Offer Pack, including your student reference number and username, name and Course.
- 6. Enrolment details
 - 6.1 While you are studying at LCCA you will need to re-enrol at LCCA at the start of each academic year of your Course in line with procedures We set, which We will send to your email address prior to the start of each year of your Course. Please note that, although you will need to re-enrol for each academic year, you will not be entering into separate contracts each time. You will instead have entered into one contract for educational studies with Us, which will become binding in line with section 5.5 above. By re-enrolling with LCCA, you will automatically be re-enrolled with UCA, and you will not need to take any action yourself to re-enrol with UCA.
 - 6.2 You will be entitled to re-enrol each year, unless any of the following apply.
 - 6.2.1 You have failed to pay your tuition fees to UCA by the date they are due, according to the tuition fee regulations (see Appendix A), and have been classified as a debtor under the debtor regulations (see Appendix A). UCA may, as We decide and in exceptional circumstances, allow you to re-enrol but, if you do, this will not affect Our right to take further action to recover the debt.
 - 6.2.2 You have been suspended or expelled on grounds of misconduct, under the student conduct rules (see Appendix A).
 - 6.2.3 A support to study panel or appeal panel has made the decision that you should interrupt or end your study under the support to study procedure (see Appendix A).
 - 6.2.4 Our Contract has been suspended under section 15 below.

- 6.2.5 You have been suspended or expelled on the grounds of academic misconduct, under the academic misconduct regulations (see Appendix A).
- 6.2.6 You have not achieved the number of credits and/or other progression requirements you need to progress to the next stage of study in line with the academic regulations related to your Course, or you have failed to meet the standards set out in the academic progress regulations (see Appendix A).
- 6.3 If you are not entitled to re-enrol, We have the right to end your Contract. If We do this, UCA will refund any tuition fees you have paid in advance for tuition for services not yet delivered.
- 7. Tuition fees, deposits, charges and debt
 - 7.1 You will pay tuition fees directly to UCA, and information about how you will make this payment will be sent to you by email after you enrol. If you are in receipt of a maintenance loan you must comply with the terms applying to those funds.
 - 7.2 We charge annual tuition fees in line with the terms of the UCA tuition fee regulations and the tuition fee schedule (see Appendix A).
 - 7.3 The fees for the first year of your Course are set out in your Offer Pack. We review Our tuition fees each year and in line with any restrictions set by the Department for Education, We may increase them in line with inflation during your registration period, before the start of each academic year. Any increase will not be higher than the Retail Prices Index forecast rate, as advised by the independent Office for Budget Responsibility (OBR). If you are an enrolled student and you want to withdraw from your Course as a result of an increase in tuition fees, you must tell Us in writing as soon as possible, by contacting LCCA Registry and filling in a change-of-status form.
 - 7.4 The annual tuition fees include the tuition fee for your Course and, if it applies, the fee for re-sitting any failed unit assessments. An additional fee is charged if you have to re-take any failed units.
 - 7.5 As well as paying the tuition fees, you may have to pay other charges, for example for study visits or field trips, or for accommodation if you live in accommodation provided by either of Us (the provision of accommodation would be subject to a separate contract and not to this Contract). You may also have to budget for materials and equipment. For more details about extra charges and costs, please read the information which is included with your Offer Pack.
 - 7.6 Where applicable, you must pay the minimum instalment of fees specified for your Course of study during the published enrolment period for the Course, in line with section 3 of the tuition fee regulations (see Appendix A).]
 - 7.7 You are responsible for paying your tuition fees, and the University will invoice you, or anyone paying on your behalf, for the fees as set out in the UCA tuition fee schedule and the tuition fee regulations (see Appendix A). If someone else is paying the fees on your behalf and they do not make a payment within the timescales set out in the debtor regulations (see Appendix A), you will be invoiced for the outstanding balance and will be responsible for making payment.
 - 7.8 If you interrupt your study or withdraw from your Course, We may refund your tuition fees or deposit (or both) under the tuition fees regulations (see Appendix A) as applicable.

- 7.9 If you do not pay your tuition fees by the deadline we have set in the tuition fees regulations (including if you fail to keep to an agreed arrangement to pay in instalments), We will write to you to say that you must pay within 14 days from the date of the letter. If you do not pay, We will classify you as a debtor under regulation 1.2 of the debtor regulations (see Appendix A).
- 7.10 If you owe a significant proportion of the annual tuition fee as defined by the debtor regulations 3.1.1 (see Appendix A), We have the right to:
 - 7.10.1 charge a late payment administration fee of £15;
 - 7.10.2 not present your marks for consideration by any board of examiners;
 - 7.10.3 not allow you to progress, re-enrol, graduate, attend a graduation ceremony or receive any results, certificate, diploma, award or official transcript in relation to the course the debt relates to; and/or
 - 7.10.4 end your enrolment and registration if you are still classified as a debtor at 31 October of the year following the academic year in which your debt was incurred. If We end your enrolment, We will tell you in writing as soon as possible.
- 7.11 If you are a debtor and We have ended your enrolment and registration, We may allow you to re-enrol, after We have considered the circumstances and in line with section 6.3 of these terms and conditions. We will consider your circumstances on a case by case basis.
- 7.12 Before deciding whether to carry out any of Our rights under section 7.11 of these terms and conditions, We will give you reasonable notice in writing and allow you to make representations to UCA, in writing.
- 7.13 If you are experiencing financial difficulty in paying your tuition fees, you should get advice and help as soon as possible, by contacting an adviser in LCCA's student services in the first instance.
- 7.14 Penalties for other charges, such as library fines or equipment hire, are set out in the debtor regulations (see Appendix A).
- 7.15 As a last resort, We may refer an unpaid debt to a debt-collection agency.
8. Our rights to make changes to the Contract
 - 8.1 We will make all reasonable efforts to deliver the courses and other services and facilities described in any published material.
 - 8.2 Whilst We will always try and minimise making changes to Our Contract (including changes to Our services and/or Course), there may be times where changes are needed.
 - 8.3 This section 8 describes the circumstances when We can make changes, as well as providing you with further information about what We will do where We look to make such changes. Section 9 also deals with changes that might be made in relation to the discontinuance of a course, or the changing of a course's location.
 - 8.4 Generally, UCA will make any changes relating to course content, teaching methods and/or delivery, learning methods and assessment methods. Either UCA or LCCA will make any changes to timetables, teaching facilities or locations and pastoral and academic support services. However, if you are unhappy with any changes to your Course, you may follow the process identified at section 8.19 below.

CHANGES TO PRE-CONTRACT INFORMATION

- 8.5 By accepting LCCA's offer, you will be confirming that you are accepting Our offer on the basis of the information contained in Our Offer Pack. This may be different from the information we may have given you at the time you were researching UCA and LCCA and making an application for the Course. Examples of changes that We may make at this stage could include (but are not limited to) the following:

- 8.5.1 material changes to the programme specification made in response to feedback from students and/or external examiners and/or to sector practice and/or guidance;
- 8.5.2 changes to the student enrolment process
- 8.5.3 if there are insufficient student numbers to make the Course viable, We may need to combine or alter a course;
- 8.5.4 where We advised that the Course was subject to approval/accreditation/validation at the time We advertised the Course, if approval/accreditation/validation has not been obtained by the date of your Offer Letter, We may need to combine or alter a course;
- 8.5.5 changes that are required by law and/or as a result of a regulatory requirement that UCA or LCCA, as providers of educational services, are required to comply with and/or as a result of governmental and/or regulatory guidance or direction;
- 8.5.6 changes that are required by a validating university or body, statutory, regulatory and/or professional body and/or regulator;
- 8.5.7 reasonable changes to the content and teaching provided on the Course.

CHANGES AFTER YOU HAVE ENTERED INTO THE CONTRACT WITH US

- 8.6 Where We need to make changes to Our Contract and services after Our Contract has been formed, We will, in each case, assess the potential impact of such change on the Contract and Our students collectively, and will follow the principles set out in this section 8.
- 8.7 We are always looking to improve and enhance students' experience with Us and We will engage in dialogue with Our students and Student Representatives and will actively seek feedback from these groups about how We can improve Our service delivery to Our students.
- 8.8 The circumstances that We describe in this section 8 are not the only ones that may arise during your studies with Us, but will give you some context as to when We may need to amend Our Contract (including Our services and Course). The section below provides you with illustrative examples of the type of changes that may arise as a result of the reasons set out in this section.

WHEN WE CAN MAKE CHANGES TO THE CONTRACT

- 8.9 We can make changes to Our Contract (including to Our services and/or Course and/or any documents forming part of the Contract as listed under Appendix A):
 - 8.9.1 to reflect changes in the law and/or by a professional, regulatory and/or statutory body;
 - 8.9.2 as required by government policy, regulatory and/or governmental requirements and/or guidance and/or direction and/or a decision of a competent court or similar body;
 - 8.9.3 to comply with any requirement set by the Office for Students and/or any other regulatory body;
 - 8.9.4 to comply with accrediting body and/or professional, statutory or regulatory body requirements;
 - 8.9.5 to address and/or to take steps in response to a security threat;
 - 8.9.6 to incorporate sector good practice and/or guidance and/or to improve the quality of a course and/or to make sure the curriculum is current and relevant to learning outcomes or standards;
 - 8.9.7 in light of student feedback and/or external examiners' feedback;

- 8.9.8 to reflect material developments in academic teaching, research and/or professional standards and/or requirements;
- 8.9.9 in light of minimum enrolment numbers / a fall in future enrolment numbers which may affect Our ability to run the Course effectively;
- 8.9.10 due to withdrawal of any relevant accreditation or validation;
- 8.9.11 to reflect changes made by a placement provider and/or withdrawal of a placement by a placement provider;
- 8.9.12 to reflect changes made by a collaborative partner and/or the requirements of a collaborative partner;
- 8.9.13 if LCCA is no longer permitted to provide the UCA course to you for whatever reason. In this instance, the provisions of UCA's Student Protection Plan will apply; or
- 8.9.14 for any other valid reason.

WHAT TYPE OF CHANGES MAY BE MADE?

8.10 The circumstances presented in section 8.9 above may result in a number of different changes being made by Us. We have set out in this section 8.10 some examples of these changes and, to help you understand what they may mean for you in practice, We have done this by referring to those examples using the headings "major changes" and "minor changes". The provisions of this section will apply depending on the type of change that is anticipated at the time.

8.10.1 Minor Changes (non-exhaustive list of examples):

- a. reasonable changes to the timetable for delivery of your Course;
- b. reasonable changes to the number of classes/lectures and other teaching activity relating to the Course;
- c. reasonable variations to the content and syllabus of the Course;
- d. changes to the location of your Course teaching facilities, provided these are within the same campus and/or provided they are of equivalent quality as those advertised;
- e. changes to the specification of your Course teaching facilities;
- f. additions and/or withdrawals of certain non-core/optional modules on your Course;
- g. changes to reading lists to deal to ensure the Course remains as up-to-date as possible;
- h. procedural changes to Our regulations that help improve the same to your benefit;
- i. reasonable changes to the availability, timing, nature, scope and/or delivery of academic and/or pastoral support services;

8.10.2 Major Changes (non-exhaustive list of examples):

- k. significant changes to the way that or method by which a Course is delivered, taught, supervised or assessed to ensure that We are continuing to provide that Course to you lawfully and/or in accordance with academic standards and quality and/or governmental and/or regulatory requirements and/or guidance (for example, We may move delivery in part or in whole online);
- l. to make additions and/or withdrawals of certain core/compulsory modules on your Course;
- m. changing Our security procedures to such an extent as may materially impact on the way that you previously acted when on campus with Us;
- n. to make significant changes to Our regulations that are set out Appendix A that help improve them where the same are not to your benefit;
- o. in rare cases, the discontinuance of your Course (please see section 9 below for more details regarding what We will do in these circumstances);

- p. significant changes to the availability, timing, nature, scope and/or delivery of academic and/or pastoral support services, including moving delivery in part or in whole on-line.

PRE-COMMENCEMENT OF COURSE

- 8.11 There may be times where We need to discontinue a course or decide not to provide a course, or to merge or combine a course with other courses of study, if such action is reasonably considered to be necessary by UCA and LCCA jointly. If We decide to take such action prior to the Course commencing, then We will use reasonable endeavours to notify you in advance and you shall be entitled to cancel this Contract by written notice to LCCA. In these circumstances you will be entitled to a refund of any deposit/fees which you have paid to Us.

HOW WE WILL TELL YOU ABOUT CHANGES TO THE CONTRACT ONCE YOU ARE ON YOUR COURSE

- 8.12 For minor changes after enrolment, We will tell you about any amendments by email and, if applicable, will make the updated regulations available on the student portal ("LCCA Portal").
- 8.13 For major changes, We will communicate with relevant Student Representatives before We make significant changes and We will tell you about any significant changes by email and, if applicable, will make the updated regulations available on the LCCA Portal. In some instances We may also inform you formally in writing, providing you with as much notice as is in Our view reasonable.
- 8.14 If We invoke Our right to make changes in accordance with the above, We shall take all reasonable steps to notify the affected students and minimise any disruption to their studies.
- 8.15 UCA has a Student Protection Plan in place which outlines the risks to the continuation of students' study, the mitigation measures in order to protect students, and the measures it will enact should these risks materialise.
- 8.16 Please note that the availability, timing, nature and/or scope of the LCCA's pastoral support and academic support services may be subject to change during your Contract for a variety of reasons including, but not limited to, in response to changes in the law and/or governmental and/or regulatory requirements and/or guidance, funding arrangements and/or the needs of students. We therefore maintain a discretion to vary, amend and/or withdraw the availability, timing, nature and/or scope of pastoral and academic support services at any time (including, for example, moving delivery in part or in whole on-line).

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE UNHAPPY WITH A CHANGE

- 8.17 If you are an applicant and as a result of a change made under this section you want to withdraw your application:
 - 8.17.1 you must tell Us in writing, by emailing admissions@lcca.org.uk within the timescale that We give you when We tell you about the changes; and
 - 8.17.2 when We receive your notice, We will try to provide a suitable alternative course within LCCA or the University (which you must pay tuition fees for, and subject to you meeting entry requirements and conditions, and to place availability) or suggest a suitable alternative course with another provider (but We cannot guarantee that you will accepted onto a course).

- 8.18 If you are an enrolled student and as a result of a change made under section 8 you want to withdraw from your Course:
 - 8.18.1 you must do the following tell Us in writing as soon as possible by contacting LCCA Registry and by filling in a change-of-status form. We will work out your tuition fees in line with the tuition fees regulations (see Appendix A).
 - 8.18.2 if you ask Us to, We will try to provide a suitable alternative course at LCCA or at the University (which you must pay tuition fees for and meet any relevant entry requirements and conditions and which will be subject to place availability), or suggest a suitable alternative course with another provider (but We cannot guarantee that you will accepted onto a course).
9. Course suspension, withdrawal and change of location
 - 9.1 We have the right to suspend, withdraw or change the location of a course, if We are unable to guarantee the quality of student experience or meet requirements relating to enrolment numbers or for the reasons set out in section 8 above.
 - 9.2 To keep disruption caused by such changes to a minimum, LCCA will:
 - 9.2.1 try to recruit enough students in order to run the course; and
 - 9.2.2 give you at least nine weeks' notice if We plan to suspend or withdraw a course or change its location.
 - 9.3 If, due to circumstances beyond LCCA's reasonable control, it is not possible to tell you beforehand or within the timescale in section 9.2.2 that We have withdrawn or suspended or changed the location of a course, LCCA will try to do so as soon as reasonably possible.
 - 9.4 If We have to suspend or withdraw your course or change its location after you have accepted an offer or if We decide to close a course on which you are already enrolled:
 - 9.4.1 LCCA will stop recruiting future student intakes (where applicable).
 - 9.4.2 where there are sufficient continuing students LCCA will 'teach out' students currently enrolled, so that you will normally be able to complete your course without interruption.
 - 9.4.3 alternatively We will, if you ask Us to, try to provide you with a suitable alternative course at the University (which you must pay tuition fees for and meet any relevant conditions and entry requirements and which will be subject to place availability) or suggest a suitable alternative course with another provider (but We cannot guarantee that you will be accepted onto a course); and
 - 9.4.4 in circumstances where you do not apply for or are not accepted onto an alternative course at the University, UCA will refund any tuition fees (and if relevant deposits) you have paid towards the course which has been suspended or withdrawn.
 - 9.5 If We decide to change the location of a course, We will usually do so for future student intakes only. We will not normally change the location for students that are already enrolled and part-way through the course, but We may need to do so in certain circumstances, including those described in section 8.

- 9.6 If, in the event of 9.4 or 9.5, LCCA's standard 'teach out' practice is not a suitable option for you, due to your particular circumstances, then We will take additional actions to help you complete your studies in line with UCA's Student Protection Plan (Appendix A). Should a situation arise when it is appropriate for the University to consider making a refund of tuition fees or other associated costs or to provide compensation, UCA will do so under the terms of UCA's Student Protection Plan and Refund and Compensation Policy (Appendix A).
10. Coursework – intellectual property, ownership and your and Our rights, and Our responsibility for your work
 - 10.1 Unless We have agreed otherwise with you in writing, you keep the intellectual property rights to all the work you do during your study. If you are involved in research projects (or similar) through your study, We (or a relevant third party) will own certain intellectual property rights that you develop in connection with that project.
 - 10.2 You agree to grant to Us (and anyone who takes over our organisation or anyone We transfer our business to) a royalty-free, non-exclusive, unchangeable, worldwide licence to use those intellectual property rights forever for the purposes of creating educational materials and for marketing, promoting or otherwise improving the reputation of the University or LCCA in all media.
 - 10.3 We will use Our rights in section 10.2 for academic and teaching purposes. This may include using your work:
 - 10.3.1 in Our learning and teaching materials;
 - 10.3.2 to market and promote LCCA or the University and its courses and activities, including our website and social-media channels, leaflets, catalogues and prospectuses; or
 - 10.3.3 for external examination or other academic quality-assurance purposes.
 - 10.3.4 For the purposes of the above, using your work includes:
 - (a) using part of it; and
 - (b) using it to create work based on it.
 - 10.4 Wherever reasonably possible, We will acknowledge the source and you as the original creator.
 - 10.5 You should submit your coursework for assessment and collect it afterwards in line with LCCA's policy on the submission, retention and return of student work (see Appendix A).
 - 10.6 We do not accept responsibility for the loss or damage of any of your coursework before you have submitted it for assessment. If you save electronic copies of your work through Our IT facilities, you do so at your own risk and We strongly advise you to keep separate backups and hard copies of all coursework and assessed work.
 - 10.7 Our liability for any loss of coursework after it has been submitted will be limited to the costs of materials and, if the coursework has not been assessed, We will offer you an appropriate opportunity to have it assessed (such as giving you the option of resubmitting if your coursework has been lost).
 - 10.8 You should normally collect any coursework you submit to Us for assessment within two weeks after We have issued your grades. We will normally dispose of your work after this time, unless you have made special arrangements with a member of your course team or unless We want to keep it for any of the purposes in section 11.3.

11. Data protection

- 11.1 Both the University and LCCA are registered data controllers under the Data Protection Act 2018 (“DPA”) and the General Data Protection Regulation. When collecting and processing your personal information, or when sharing any of your personal information with anyone else, each of UCA and LCCA will do so in line with their own data protection policies and privacy notices (see Appendix A).
- 11.2 We will only share your special category data (e.g. information about your health) in line with UK data protection legislation.
- 11.3 We and Our students must comply with the University’s data protection policy, which you can see at Appendix A. If you do not comply with the relevant requirements of the data protection policy when processing personal information in the course of your studies, We may take disciplinary action against you. Please note in particular paragraph 16 of the University’s data protection policy.
- 11.4 If applicable, we may share relevant information with UK Visas and Immigration (or other government agencies such as the police) about your obligations under the Immigration Rules and the conditions of your stay in the UK, in line with UK data protection legislation.

12. Liability

- 12.1 If We fail to comply with these terms and conditions, We will be responsible for any loss or damage you suffer that could be foreseen as a result of Us breaching this Contract or Us failing to use reasonable care and skill, but We will not be responsible for any loss or damage that could not have been foreseen. Loss or damage can be foreseeable if it is an obvious consequence of Us breaching this Contract or if you and We considered it at the time We entered into this Contract.
- 12.2 We only provide services for domestic and private use and We will not be liable to you for any loss of profit, loss of business, interruption to business or loss of commercial opportunity under the terms of this Contract.
- 12.3 We do not in any way exclude or limit Our liability for:
 - 12.3.1 death or personal injury caused by Our negligence;
 - 12.3.2 fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or
 - 12.3.3 in any way breaching the terms for which liability cannot be limited or excluded, as under section 57 of the Consumer Rights Act 2015.
- 12.4 Neither you nor We will be liable to the other for any failure or delay in complying with your or Our obligations under these terms and conditions if the failure or delay is due to any cause outside your or Our reasonable control, including government actions or directions, a change in law following the UK ceasing to be a Member State of the European Union which means We are no longer legally allowed to provide services to you, war, civil disturbance, terrorist attack or threat of terrorist attack, pandemic or epidemic (or similar infectious diseases where We have health and safety concerns regarding the provision of the Course and other services to you or Our courses and services to other students), fire, extreme weather conditions, and labour disputes or industrial action, including disputes involving someone else’s employees.

13. Complaints

- 13.1 If there is something that you are unhappy about, please tell Us straight away so that, if possible, We can put it right. If you wish to complain about an action or lack of action by UCA or LCCA, or any aspect of Our service, you may do so using LCCA's Complaints Policy (See Appendix A). In the event that you are unhappy with any resolution under LCCA's Complaints Policy at any stage, you may seek a resolution under UCA's Complaint's Policy.
- 13.2 If a student is not satisfied with the outcome of their complaint, they may take it to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator at www.oiahe.org.uk or OIA, Second Floor, Abbey Gate, 57-75 Kings Road, Reading RG1 3AB.
- 13.3 These terms and conditions, including UCA and LCCA's policies and procedures are in addition to the range of protections students have under consumer protection law, and do not limit your consumer rights and remedies.
14. Status of terms and conditions
 - 14.1 Our Contract is between you and Us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms and neither you or Us will need to get the agreement of any other person in order to end our Contract or make any changes to these terms and conditions.
15. Deferral or suspension by Us
 - 15.1 In certain exceptional circumstances, We may need to defer your enrolment or suspend Our Contract with you where it is reasonably necessary for Us to do so to:
 - 15.1.1 obtain, investigate and/or assess information regarding your support needs and to consider whether any reasonable adjustment may be needed, and/or to implement any reasonable adjustment; and/or
