WHERE ARE WE LOCATED?

LCCA's Central London location means you'll be at the heart of a city that never stops creating. From catwalks to start-ups, street style to skyline galleries, this city is always buzzing with ideas and opportunities. Diverse, daring and globally connected, it's the ultimate launchpad for shaping the career and creative future you want.

89.5% of LCCA students rated the teaching on their course highly.*

WELCOME

TO LCCA

Welcome to London College of Contemporary Arts, where creativity meets the skills, experience and ambition to make it happen.

Our courses are built around real learning for real life, bringing together the creative and commercial sides of industry. You'll have opportunities to put your ideas into practice, work collaboratively and develop the professional skills you'll need to turn creative talent into a career.

Our central London location puts one of the world's great creative capitals on your doorstep. You'll be part of a community that's closely connected to the creative industries, gaining insight and experience through our leading industry partners and learning from lecturers and creative professionals who bring their own real-world expertise into their teaching.

Just as important are the connections you'll make with those around you. Our students collaborate across disciplines, create projects together, launch ventures and form professional relationships that continue long after their studies. Here, the person sitting next to you might become a future collaborator, co-founder or creative partner.

It's an exciting time to join LCCA. This year, we've strengthened our academic partnerships, with The University of The Law now designing and awarding our business and hospitality programmes, while our creative courses continue to be accredited by the University for the Creative Arts.

Another highlight has been the first LCCAFest, a major celebration bringing together student and graduate work and putting their talent centre stage in front of an industry audience. We're also celebrating our best ever National Student Survey results, with scores reaching over 90% and standout results across teaching and learning opportunities.

At LCCA, we're committed to preparing you for a future that's constantly evolving. Artificial intelligence, new technologies and sustainability are opening up new possibilities for how we create, communicate and do business. With us, you'll have the freedom to explore those possibilities with confidence and curiosity, while developing the human skills that will continue to matter wherever your career takes you.

Join us at LCCA and reveal your brilliance. We can't wait to see what you're made of.

Sarah Moore-Williams
Executive Dean, LCCA

WHY LCCA?

At LCCA, we believe the most exciting creative careers are Self-Made. Whatever yours looks like, we'll provide you with the experience, connections and opportunities to start making it happen.

01 REAL LEARNING FOR REAL LIFE

We believe the best way to learn is by doing. Live briefs, practical projects and industry-level facilities give you the space to put your skills into action, work with industry and build your portfolio while you earn your degree.

02 LEARN WITH LEGENDS

Our lecturers and tutors bring years of practical experience to LCCA, with many still active in their industries today. Our teaching team spans fashion, graphic design, gaming, business, hospitality and more, giving you first-hand knowledge of the worlds you're preparing to enter.

03 MAKE IT IN LONDON

Our campuses put you in the middle of one of the world's leading creative and commercial centres. We'll help you make the most of it, with opportunities to showcase your work at major London events, meet people in your industry and start building a name for yourself.

04 WE'RE CAREER-MINDED

We make it our business to get you ready for your next career step. At LCCA, you're backed by dedicated Careers & Employability support, giving you the chance to get one-to-one advice on your terms, explore internships, meet industry professionals and turn a business idea into something more.

05 FIT IN. STAND OUT.

Our community spans more than 100 nationalities, life stages, experiences and ambitions. With us, you can be yourself, find your people and develop your unique creative identity. At LCCA, we know there's no single route through education, so flexibility is built into our courses to help you balance study with the rest of your life.

More than a title, Self-Made celebrates the courage to create and the power to shape your own path.

LUCY LONDON,
DEAN OF CREATIVE INDUSTRIES LCCA

OUR ACADEMIC PARTNERS

Accredited by

UNIVERSITY FOR THE CREATIVE ARTS

LCCA's creative courses are accredited by University for the Creative Arts (UCA), one of the UK's leading specialist creative universities.

The partnership covers our Fashion, Graphic Design and Games courses, combining your experience at LCCA with UCA's academic standards and specialist experience in creative education.

UCA has a long history of supporting creative talent, with alumni including Dame Tracey Emin, Dame Zandra Rhodes and Nymphia Wind, and was ranked the UK's #2 creative specialist university in the Guardian University Guide 2025.

THE UNIVERSITY OF LAW

LCCA works in partnership with The University of Law across our Business and Hospitality programmes. These courses are designed and awarded by The University of Law and delivered by LCCA, combining academic rigour with LCCA's creative, career-driven approach to learning.

With a history stretching back 150 years, The University of Law brings extensive experience in professionally focused education to its approach to course design. Its Business School takes a career-focused approach to business education, with programmes shaped around the practical, digital and analytical skills needed in today's workplace.

OUR CREATIVE CAMPUSES

THE AMP, ALDGATE

The Amp is our creative hub, home to our Creative Foundation programmes, fashion, fashion management and marketing, and games. It's an open, collaborative campus, with spaces designed for working and creating together. You'll find Mac suites, breakout and exhibition spaces, private study booths and our onsite café, alongside our purpose-built Gaming Lab and fully equipped fashion studios. With student showcases and events taking place regularly throughout the year, there's always something happening at The Amp.

Beyond campus, East London is yours to explore, with many of the city's best-known cultural spots right around the corner. Brick Lane is just a short walk away, where you can check out some of London's best independent food spots, admire the colourful street art or rifle through the vintage rails for your next creative project. Spitalfields Market and Whitechapel Gallery are nearby too, with plenty more to discover between classes.

Get directions

SCEPTRE COURT, TOWER HILL

Sceptre Court is home to our business, hospitality and graphic design courses, with everything you need to get down to work, including dedicated classrooms and Mac suites. It's also home to The Garage, our exhibition space, where you'll regularly find student work on show, including projects by our Graphic Design students as well as business fairs and hospitality events.

Outside, some of London's best-known landmarks are just a stone's throw away, including the Tower of London and Tower Bridge. St Katharine Docks is nearby for a peaceful waterside lunch break, while the City's business district is within easy reach too. Around a 10-minute walk away, the famous Leadenhall Market is home to independent shops, places to eat and regular craft and vintage markets.

HERE WHEN YOU NEED US

Whichever campus you study at, you'll have access to support throughout your time at LCCA. Our Student Hub, Programme Administration, Student Success and Careers teams work across both campuses, with appointments and regular pop-ups giving you access to our wider student services where it suits you.

CAREERS AT LCCA

CAREERS AND EMPLOYABILITY ARE BUILT INTO EVERY PART OF YOUR LCCA EXPERIENCE.

That means opportunities to meet industry, showcase your work and develop your professional skills alongside the individual support you'll get from our Careers & Employability team.

The team can help with career planning, CVs, portfolios, applications and interview preparation, as well as finding internships and other opportunities. You can continue to use the service for up to three years after you graduate.

LCCAFEST

LCCAFest is our flagship creative showcase, bringing together student exhibitions, industry talks and live runway shows. The event has been officially listed on the London Fashion Week schedule published by the British Fashion Council, giving students the chance to showcase their work as part of one of the biggest events in the fashion calendar.

Previous guests have included Dame Zandra Rhodes and representatives from Vivienne Westwood, M&S, Debenhams, L'Oréal, Stylist Magazine and more.

of LCCA students rated their learning opportunities highly.*

WE PUT YOUR WORK OUT THERE

Depending on your course, you'll have opportunities to showcase your work at major industry events and competitions including Graduate Fashion Week, London Fashion Day, New Designers, The Rookie Awards and many more.

It's a chance to get your work seen by industry and make professional connections while you study.

CAREERS DEVELOPMENT WEEK

Each year, we run a full week of talks, workshops, panels and networking with employers, founders, recruiters and industry professionals.

Our London location means we can draw on industry figures working across a wide range of creative and commercial industries, bringing different career paths and professional experience directly to LCCA.

Previous speakers have included BBC presenter and travel journalist Carmen Roberts, Otiumberg CEO Áine McCourt, filmmaker and games studio founder Haz Dulull, and international event architect Nadu Placca Rodriguez, whose clients include Spotify, Stormzy and Afro Nation.

SUPPORT FOR SELF-MADE CAREERS

Our Enterprise Hub supports students interested in freelancing, self-employment and starting a business. Here, you can get practical support with areas including business planning, market testing, pricing, pitching, funding and responsible use of AI.

WORK WITH LEADING BRANDS

Our well-connected Careers & Employability and Industry Engagement teams are at the top of their game when it comes to creating opportunities for students to connect with industry as part of course curriculum. Our students have worked with brands including:

We work with businesses and organisations across fashion, design, hospitality, business, games and the wider creative industries. These connections open up opportunities to work on live briefs, take part in industry projects and collaborate with active professionals in a supportive learning environment.

It's a chance to see how the industry works up close, gain experience outside your usual course projects and start building a professional network of your own. Our list of partners is always growing, with new briefs, projects and collaborations giving students more ways to get involved.

SELF-MADE STORIES

Our students and alumni are carving out their own paths across the creative and commercial industries. Discover some of their stories and see where LCCA could take you.

MARY MARTIN

BA FASHION & TEXTILES

LCCA alumna Mary Martin is an award-winning fashion designer and founder of Mary Martin London. In 2026, she was named Creative Fashion Icon of the Year at the African Achievers Awards, recognising her contribution to fashion and her work celebrating culture, identity and African heritage. Her career has earned international recognition, including Mary Martin Appreciation Day being officially proclaimed in Fulton County, Georgia. She has also received the Ladies' Choice Ghana Fashion Icon of the Year Award and an honorary doctorate.

LCCA changed my life. My tutors gave me the confidence to truly believe in myself as a designer.

KHAOS ROSE BLAKK

BA FASHION

Khaos was selected to show their Doomsday graduate collection on the runway at Graduate Fashion Week, putting their work in front of industry as part of one of the UK's leading showcases for emerging fashion talent. Their collection was also shortlisted for the Hilary Alexander Sustainable Trailblazer Award, recognising emerging designers championing sustainability in their work. Khaos has also been featured by ASBO Magazine, the Graduate Fashion Foundation and London Fashion Day.

Communicating with classmates, networking and just being inspired by others around me at LCCA was really helpful. Getting that creative spark was so important, and it really made a difference.

PATRICK D'CAMPOS

BA FASHION MANAGEMENT AND MARKETING

Patrick developed his genderless luxury fashion brand, IAMPATRICK, while studying at LCCA, building the concept and marketing strategy as part of his degree. Since graduating, Patrick has moved into a professional marketing role while continuing to develop his brand. He was also featured by GQ Netherlands alongside entrepreneurs discussing the books that have shaped their approach to business and success.

LCCA gave me the tools, conviction and direction to turn my creative idea into real opportunity.

CREATIVE COURSES

Our creative courses cover fashion design, fashion management and marketing, graphic design and games. You'll learn through practical projects and briefs, developing your skills and building experience in your chosen subject.

LCCA's creative courses are accredited by the University for the Creative Arts (UCA).

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO BEGIN YOUR JOURNEY WITH LCCA

WHAT WE OFFER

LCCA offers a number of undergraduate degree programmes on both creative and business pathways. LCCA offers the option to start the courses directly or to enter through a Foundation Pathway.

PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENTS

When applying to LCCA, showcasing your talent is key, especially for Creative pathway courses. Our advice for creating an impressive art or design portfolio includes maintaining a consistent format (landscape or portrait), clearly labelling your work, and being ready to discuss your ideas and goals for the course. We recommend uploading your portfolio to platforms like Flickr, YouTube, or Vimeo and sharing the link with us.

DETAILED COURSE INFORMATION

Our website provides comprehensive information about each course, including details on career prospects, academic staff, entry requirements, fees, and application procedures. While all the information in this prospectus is accurate at the time of publication, it is subject to change. For the latest and most current details about our courses, we encourage you to visit our website.

STUDENT SUPPORT

STUDENT SUPPORT & WELLBEING

Whatever you've got going on, we're here to help. At LCCA, you'll have access to support with the practical and academic side of student life, as well as your health and wellbeing. Our teams work across both campuses and can help with everyday questions, more individual support or finding the right service for you.

YOUR STUDENT HUB

The Student Hub is your first stop for day-to-day questions about studying at LCCA. It works alongside our Programme Administration and Student Success teams, so if you're not sure who to speak to, they can point you in the right direction.

DISABILITY SUPPORT

Our Disability and Wellbeing Team offers support based on your individual needs. This can include reasonable adjustments and Individual Learning Plans, as well as help accessing other services and resources.

YOUR WELLBEING

All LCCA students have free access to Uwill, an online mental health and wellbeing service offering confidential counselling and wellbeing support. You can choose a counsellor based on your preferences, with appointments available during the day, evenings and weekends.

Support is available by video, phone, chat or message, alongside online wellness programmes covering areas such as stress relief, meditation and self-care. Uwill also provides 24/7 crisis support.
